

Storm Wrap Up

June 30-July 1

2014

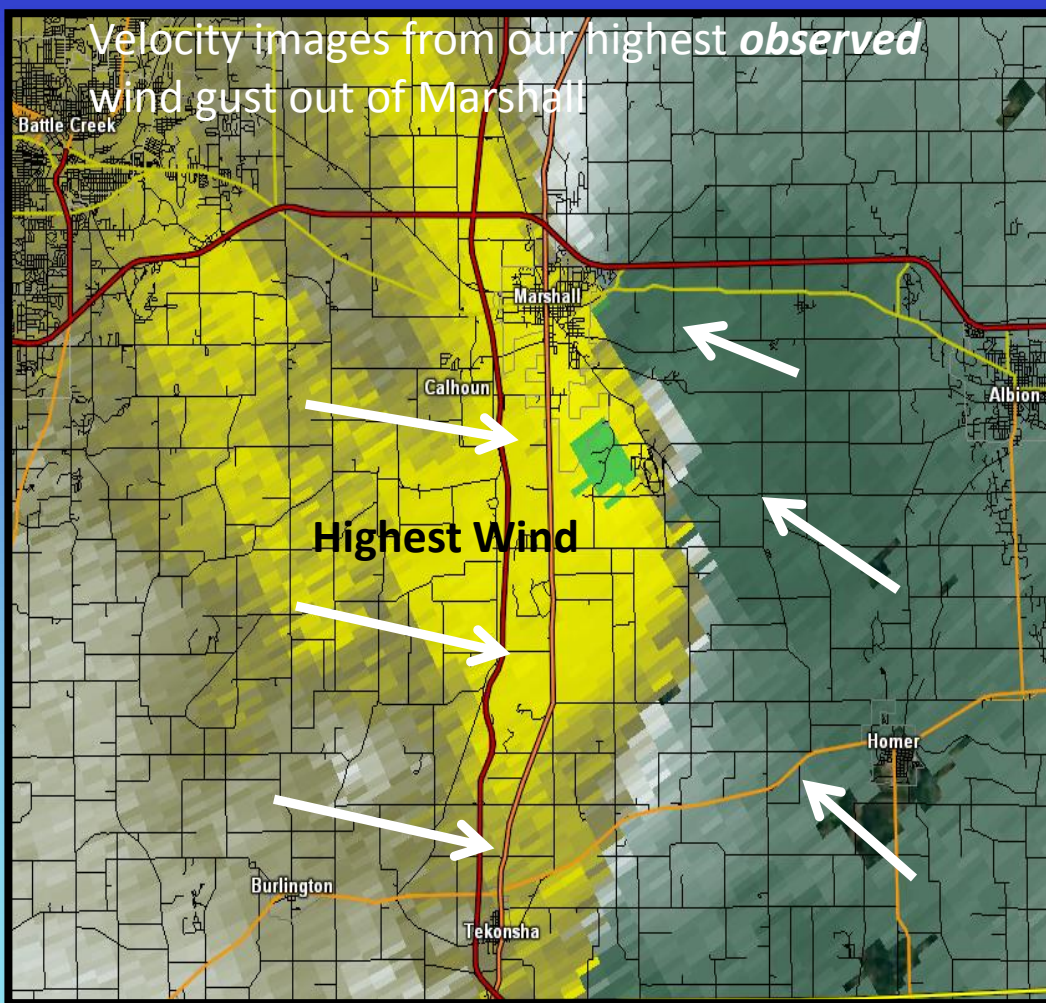

National Weather Service
Grand Rapids, Michigan

Radar Reflectivity

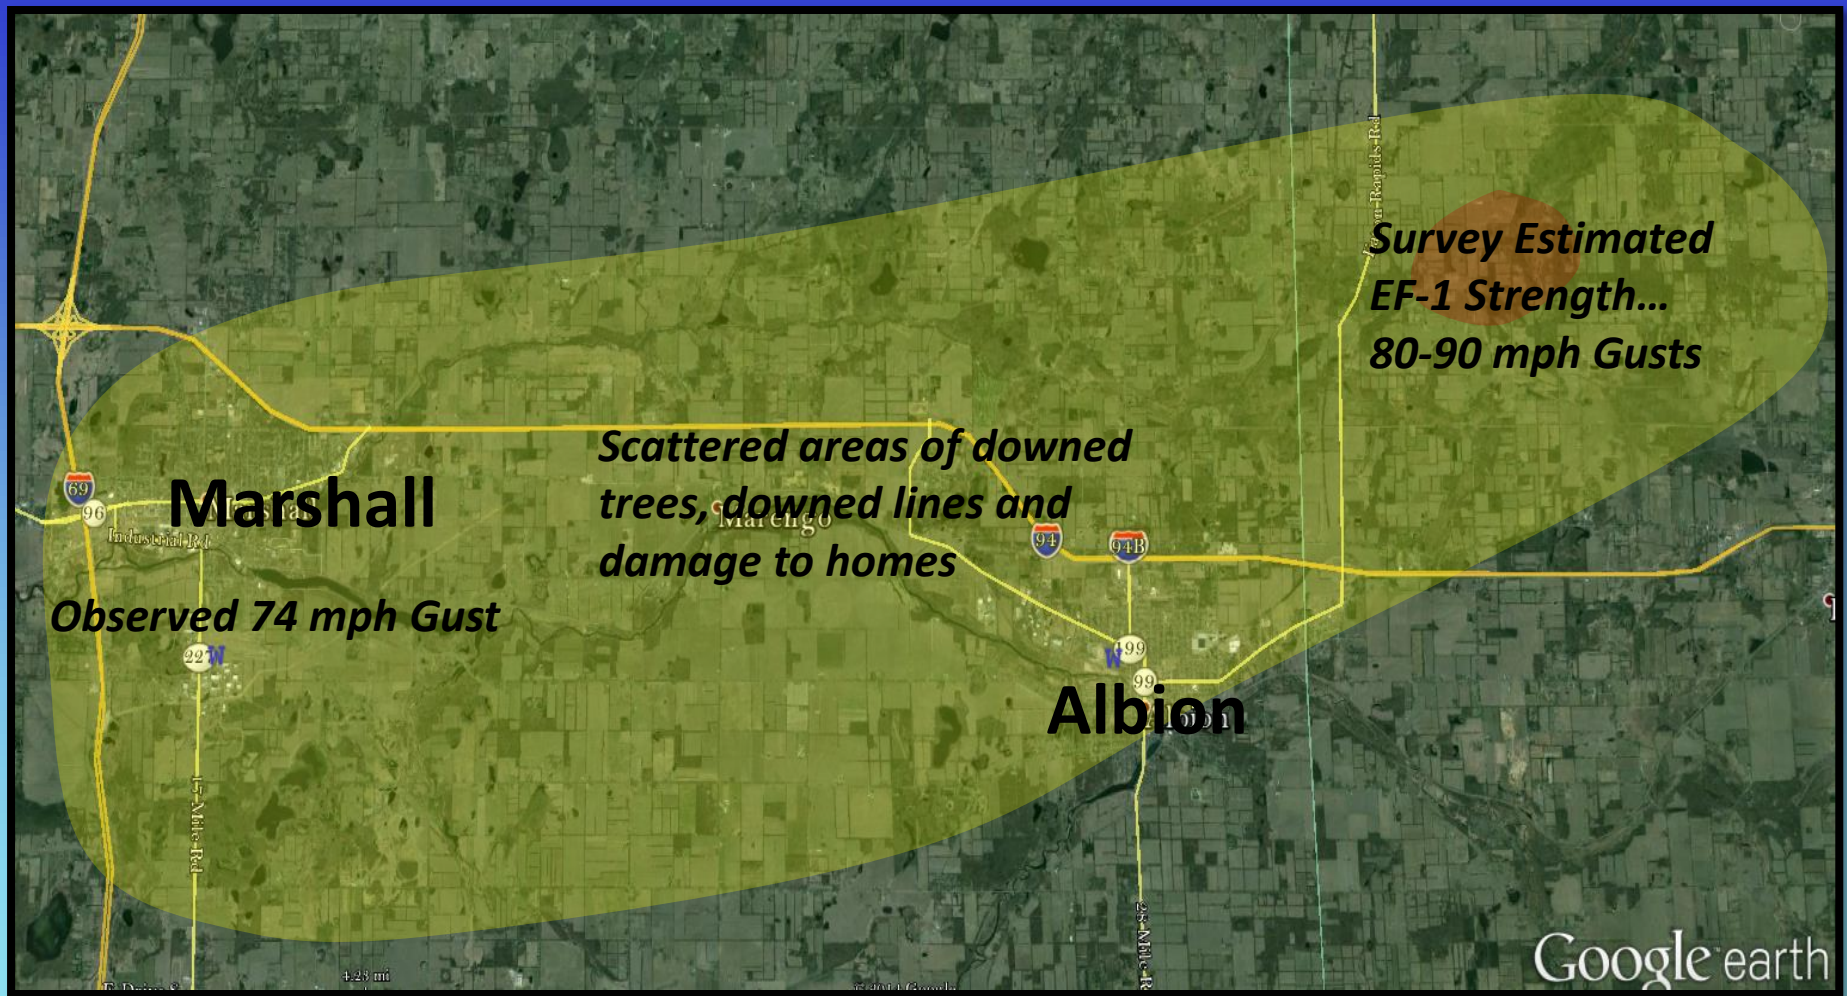

- Line of storms entered Southwest Michigan around 12:30 a.m.
- Moved east along I-94
- Many trees, power lines and poles down. Tens of thousands without power

Radar Velocity

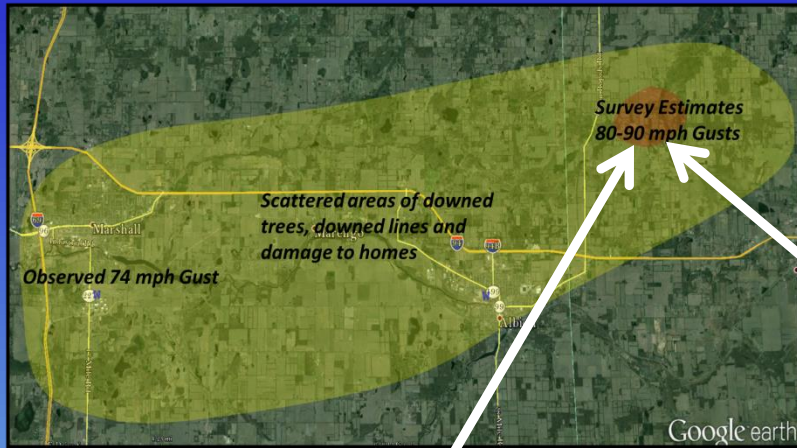

- After cutting through Kalamazoo, the storm intensified
- Battle Creek and Marshall were hit just before 2 a.m. Tuesday
- Heavy damage in Albion with winds estimated at 80 to 90 mph
- Measured 74 mph wind gust at Brooks Field near Marshall

The Worst Damage

Heavy Damage just Northeast of Albion

This house lost its roof and several trees in the area

Several areas had impassable roads due to downed trees

NWS Grand Rapids
weather.gov/grr

National Weather Service
Grand Rapids

@NWSGrandRapids

Line #2- Power Outages

